consider it an honor and privilege to dedicate
THE CHAIN
of nineteen hundred forty-four to
Mr. William Irby Nickels, Jr.
in whom they recognize his scientific ability his qualities as a teacher his fairness to all and his continuous encouragement of creative thinking among the pupils of Lane

Preface

THE eternal hands of time are continually counting off the minutes, hours, and days as our school years roll by. With the thoughts of school uppermost in our minds, the staff has chosen as a theme—LIFE AT LANE.

In this, the twenty-sixth link, we have tried to depict the "round-the-clock" activities—gay moments and somber ones; play, study, friendships, and love. It is your book, for it is you who have made it.

Dr. James G. Johnson, Supt. City Schools

Dr. James G. Johnson took office as superintendent of the Charlottesville public schools July 1, 1909, thus making this the thirty-fifth session of continuous service to the education of the city's youth. During his term of office three elementary schools, a new high school, and Venable Field House for the white children, and a new high school for the colored children have been added to the system. The eight room Jefferson colored school building is the only school building now in use in the city that was not planned and constructed under the supervision of Dr. Johnson.

He received his B. A. degree from Milligan College in Tennessee and his M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of Virginia.

Mr. Hugh L. Sulfridge, Principal

Mr. Hugh L. Sulfridge began his principalship of Lane High School in the old Midway building in 1929.

He secured his teacher's diploma from the College of William and Mary in 1909, and in the summer session of 1916 he received his B. A. degree from the same college.

Later he attended summer sessions at both Chicago University and Columbia, receiving his M. A. in history from the latter institution in 1929.

Before coming to Charlottesville, he served as principal in the high schools of Coeburn, Stonega, Appalachia and Big Stone Gap.

Mr. Sulfridge served as president of the Virginia Education Association for the year 1931-'32 and has served two years on the Executive Committee and four years on the Board of Directors.

Seniors at last—and, oh, so dignified! First, as Freshmen, awed at the upper classmen, but silly and "show-offish" to cover our confusion. Our Junior year, spent growing older and wiser (perhaps looking in a mirror) for our last and most important year lay ahead.

We all look back through our Senior year, and, as our thoughts dwell on those happier moments, we remember:

That first Senior meeting when we elected our officers, midst confusion from the B and Q Club—our other meetings to vote on the privileges, dedication, and features (how we stalled for time, so we wouldn't have to go to class)—our "fights" as to whether we should pay nine or twelve dollars for the same ring—our dances—watching our classmates go away as boys and return as men in uniform—our Senior play—that last big fling of class day, picnic, dances, banquet, and graduation (speeches and more speeches).

So here we are! Our future looks confused and none too bright, but we leave our school with confidence and hope for a world of peace.

Junior Class

SPENCER, GILLUM, TURNER, MCGAVOCK

We now begin glancing back over our good times as Eighth Graders, Freshmen, and Sophomores. As Juniors, we start looking into the future and choosing our fields of work. This year we are taking a greater part in activities. For instance, there is Bobby Turner, president of the Junior class who is often seen sleeping in geometry, but can give correct answers when called upon; and vice-president, Shirley McGavock, the talented actress of the class. Then there's athletic Martha Gillum, secretary, always seen rushing about. The treasurer is Pauline Spencer, a quiet girl, but very dependable.

Miss Lillian Butt

Mr. Gerald Speidel

As sponsors we chose those well known history teachers, Miss Butt and Mr. Speidel to lead us in activities for the year. We appreciate the interest they have shown in us and have enjoyed working with them.

Not only do many big things enter our life, but other happenings too, that make school life brighter. Dates—looking down on under classmen—ushering—first period recess—taking more important parts in assemblies—dances—driving to school—clubs—being in the annual school play—going all out for sports. Such are the memories of a Junior day and anticipation for tomorrow. You lower classmen or "comer-ups" have some grand times ahead.

Sophomore Class

HANKINS, RAMEY, PRITCHETT, COINER

This was our first year during which we could talk back to Seniors and feel at ease about it. As all Sophomores do, we began to grow up and to feel a little more important and to prove this, the Sophomore Class succeeded last year in installing their candidate, Woodson Harrison, as this year's chairman of the Honor Committee.

We have been active in all school clubs and organizations also. Besides our work with the Student Government, members of our class work with the Lanetime, the Bumblebee, the Hi-Y Clubs, and the Lane High Band.

Mr. John E. Reitz

The scholastic rating of the Sophomore Class is one of the highest of any of the classes attending Lane at the present time and it expects to maintain this coveted position.

Meeting early in the year we elected as our sponsors, Mr. John E. Reitz and Miss Ada Lee Berrey, who have been a great help in leading us in the right direction. Norton Pritchett was elected president for the second straight year with Len Coiner as vice-president. Ray Ramey and Langdon Hankins were elected secretary and treasurer respectively.

We are looking forward to next year when we, as Juniors, return to Lane.

Freshman Class

KENNEDY, BRANNOCK, WOOD

This year when we Freshmen came to school we had the good feeling that we were no longer the lowest of the lower classmen. Now toward the end of the year we have not only advanced scholastically, but in the school activities too.

Max Kennedy, our president, is well qualified for this office, having had previous experience in leadership. This is his second consecutive year as a class officer.

The class was sorry to lose one of its sponsors, Mrs. Katherine Meade, who left in January to work for the Navy and to live in Washington, D. C. The other sponsor, Mrs. Lucile Michie, has been very helpful throughout the year.

In athletics, the class has taken an active part, being represented on the football team, the Junior and Varsity Basketball teams, and having three boys on the boxing team.

In dramatics, the class has shown a definite interest. Among its members who have taken part in the plays given, Mary Rives Ogilvie has shown exceptional talent.

In music, the class has provided a large number of singers for the choir and one-fourth of the band membership.

All in all, the members of the Freshman Class have had a successful year and look forward to their Sophomore term.

from the same home room. In the absence of the president who has moved to Durham, N. C., her duties have been taken over by the vice-president.

The activities of the Eighth Grade have been limited. Except for the meeting for election of officers, there has been only one other class meeting which was held with the Freshman class.

The transfer from the slow and easy life of a "grammar-grader" to the whirlwind existence at high school was quite a change. At first no one knew where he was headed when he stepped out of one room and started for the next one on his schedule. However, the Eighth Graders are "old Lane-ites" now and are ready to accept their responsibilities as a definite part of their school.

Service

Lane At War

During the past year the pupils and teachers of Lane High School working individually and in various organizations have done much to further the war effort. Perhaps the most direct contribution was the sale of stamps and bonds, handled by a committee of eleven pupils and three teachers. The pupils on the committee manned the Bond Booth during their vacant periods and, under the supervision of the teachers, made sales amounting to $85,000. In celebration of Pearl Harbor Day every teacher, student, and employee of the school bought stamps or bonds. At a War Bond Auction in February, articles donated by local merchants brought $27,448.75 net in bonds.

Lane's response to the Junior Red Cross Drive was outstanding this year. Students contributed $110, a large part of which was used to furnish a maple sun room suite at Woodrow Wilson Hospital.

Several other projects have been successfully introduced. Games and books were collected for wounded soldiers, and Christmas stockings were filled for them. The Red Cross sponsored, too, the harvesting of ornaments for the soldiers' Christmas Tree.

When the Tuberculosis Seal Drive was over Lane's score was $57.60, and contributions were also made to the March of Dimes Campaign, to the drive for the University Hospital Unit, and to the Charlottesville War Fund, the latter amounted to $327.27.

The Girls' and Boys' Hi-Y Clubs have done their bit for the war effort also. The girls sponsored the outfitting and the school paid for the equipping of the clinic room to take care of school "casualties"; collected scrapbooks for an Army Hospital; made surgical dressings regularly and donated a Bible to the U. S. S. Charlottesville. Both the Boys' and Girls' Clubs contributed to the Red Cross as a group.

Lane's curriculum included beneficial war courses—aeronautics, auto-mechanics, first aid, and shop work. The C. A. P. C. did a fine job this past year preparing boys for service by training them in basic aeronautics, code work, military courtesy and drill.

Health is vital to victory. With this in mind the physical training classes of last year were formulated. Army-Navy requirements were used as a goal and many boys thus trained are now in active service. This training included body- building, teamwork, and corrective exercises.

Believe it or not, the playing of a bass horn contributed to the war effort this past year! Yes, the Lane High Band by providing its excellent music gave to several patriotic assemblies the needed flourish.

Little has been said of that big organization—the Victory Corps. This is due to the fact that most of the war work done at Lane was through the Corps, which has a large, active membership.

Thus Lane High School functioned at war, doing its part toward bringing victory and peace to the world.

Visiting Alumni In Service

These snapshots, taken approximately between November 1, 1943, and March 20, 1944, picture the patriotic service being rendered in the armed forces by former Lane students and instructors. The pictures were taken whenever these service people visited the school and the CHAIN is honored to present them to you. The staff apologizes if any visitors have been omitted.

In Memoriam

The dawn will bring another day;
The sun will rise
A ball of fire behind a veil of mist;
But yet there is a hollow place, a void,
That will not fill with song
And cries forlornly.
No sun will warm it;
Its heart is too sad.
Ceaselessly it weeps,
Weeps for its boys, its young brave lads
Who died alone in foreign fields,
Heroes in death.

Victory Corps

Selling stamps and bonds; salvaging fats, paper and metals; helping with the Red Cross work, the Community Chest, and the T. B. Association drive; caring for children; and just plain drilling have kept the Victory Corps members busy doing their part in our war effort.

The Junior Hi-Y has had a most successful year, and one may truly say of it that it has created, maintained, and extended throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. It has contributed to the war effort by its gift to the Red Cross, by the scrapbooks, which were sent to the Woodrow Wilson Hospital, by a subscription to Life Magazine for the same hospital, and by giving its part for the Bible, which both girls' clubs presented to the U.S.S. Charlottesville.

At Christmas the girls dressed dolls for the Mothers' Club to distribute to underprivileged children, and participated in the annual Hi-Y assembly. The highlight of the season was the party given by the club for a less fortunate girl. She was the recipient of many articles of clothing.

The Girls' Senior Hi-Y has given its time largely to war work. A contribution was made to the Red Cross, and the members devoted their time to bandage making.

All Hi-Y Clubs have cooperated by having a joint induction in the fall, followed by a social hour, and by attending church in a body one Sunday in each month.

At Christmas scrapbooks were made for the men at the Woodrow Wilson Hospital, dolls were dressed, and an assembly was given. At this assembly the club presented Shirley Lawrence with a Hi-Y pin for her outstanding contribution to Hi-Y work.

A worthwhile project was the sponsoring of the movement for equipping the clinic room.

The highlight of the year was the presentation of a leather-bound Bible, with U. S. S. Charlottesville engraved on its cover, to the newly-built ship named for our city.

Standing: Miss Butt (Sponsor), D. Hamilton, C. Mundie, M. Morris, A. Bingler, C. Hall, S. Lawrence, F. Connock, P. Norford, J. White, M. Reynolds, S. Ferland, Mrs. Alderman (Sponsor).

The Boys' Junior Hi-Y Club during the year has assisted in the collection and distribution of the Christmas baskets. Once a month the club has attended church in a body together with the Senior boys, the Girls' Hi-Y members, and the sponsors.

When the Senior Club has had a speaker, the Junior Club has joined in the meeting and the discussion which followe.

The Club has contributed to the Red Cross War Fund and to the War Prisoners' Aid Committee's Budget.

A large number of the members have attended the two social events of the year—a dance and a picnic.

Standing (left to right): F. Wickham, J. Fletcher, J. Lee, S. Blackford, J. Herr, L. Mize, M. Kennedy, L. Hankins, D. Via, R. Ramey, K. Richardson, B. Drash, W. Finnegan, F. Barham, E. Nuckols, A. Golding.

The Boys' Senior Hi-Y Club has sponsored various activities during the past year.

Considerable interest has been shown in the meetings, especially those at which a visiting speaker led the discussion. Some of the speakers were: Coach Frank Murray, Dr. C. Fred Williams, Father Rowan, Mr. P. E. Taylor and Coach Bodnarik.

The Club has attended church each month together with the other Hi-Y Clubs.

The members also assisted in the distribution of the Christmas baskets.

The Club has contributed to the Red Cross War Fund Drive and to the work of the Y. M. C. A. War Prisoners' Aid Committee. The several discussions on the work of this latter organization have proved informative and interesting.

BETTY ANN HAWTHORNE: "Don't faint, but I've got it today."
LUCY COLCOCK: "Do I have to do these over?"
HARRIET FLETCHER: "What'll I do now?"
BETTIE HAWKINS: "Miss Schuder, I can't do this."
VIRGINIA ROBINSON: "Get away, haven't time."

The CHAIN staff began work immediately upon the opening of school; decided upon its theme; outlined the work for each member, and hoped for the best.

This year the staff has met with the usual difficulties, and a few more. A familiar phrase is, "You can't do that, priorities, you know."

Group picture taking began early and much of that was completed before the cold weather could produce that frozen look, but there was the usual rain which prevented many schedules from being followed. And speaking of pictures, there was always a mad rush to find one of our photographers when one of Lane's alumni appeared around this vicinity in a uniform.

Then, of course, there was the work of getting all editorials in on time. Anyone who has been around Miss Spiro is aware of the work that goes into the ads at the end of the annual.

But don't be fooled, we wouldn't trade our "jobs" for anything. You may ask what do you get out of it Well, have you ever taken time out from autographing to look at the members of the staff the day the CHAIN comes out? If you have, you have seen the glow of satisfaction when they see how the fruit of their labor is received with whoops of delight. Well, this is one thing we "get out" of it. Of course, there is the fun we get out of assembling it too; seeing the pictures when they come in; laughing over some of the write-ups; deciding to whom we shall dedicate the CHAIN; voting on the features; and a million other things.

We hope you are pleased with our efforts.

The Mixed Chorus has been formed primarily for the benefit of those whose schedules do not permit them to enter either of the choirs or the glee clubs.

This session the Mixed Chorus met only once a week. Emphasis is placed upon the development of an appreciation for and of the joy of good singing.

The Mixed Chorus participates in some of the assemblies and should develop into one of the best units of the choral music program, under the direction of Mrs. Mae Evelyn Blume.

The Lanetime is published approximately every three weeks by a staff of those in the Journalism Class and those who have had this training previously. In the eleven issues this year it has been representative of the student body and has attempted to stand for the principles it considers right.

To comply with situations of war this year Lanetime was cut to a five column paper having only four pages.

New columns have been run, including Service Men in Review, Lane's Checkerboard, and Faculty Previews.

In recognition of our alumni overseas, Lanetime has been mailed as a gift to all.

The Girls' Glee Club was reorganized last September as a part of the regular Choral Music Department. The club has met every Tuesday and Thursday under the direction of Mrs. Mae Evelyn Blume.

Because many girls did not know about the club until their schedules had been made, the membership this year was not as large as expected next year, when the club hopes to have forty or fifty good singers. Girls desiring training in vocal ensemble and having voices that blend are invited to become members.

The first public appearance of the Girls' Glee Club was in the school assembly when it sang "We're The Arm Behind The Navy."

The Boys' Glee Club is an organization that was first begun at old Lane High School fifteen years ago. Several years back it was disbanded, but was reorganized this year under the able leadership of Mrs. Mae Evelyn Blume with a small group of boys interested in better vocal music and singing for performances.

It is the goal of the Glee Club to have a membership of twenty-five to fifty members within the next year. With the development of the club, a wide program of active participation in school and local community programs will follow. This year the club has participated in various school assembly programs.

The Lucy T. Jones Creative Writing Club was organized to promote creative writing at Lane High School and to develop such ability in students. At the meetings, original compositions, short stories, poems, or essays are read by the authors.

The staff of the Bumblebee, the school literary magazine, is chosen largely from the Creative Writing Club. Also, the members of the Club have contributed a large part of the content of that magazine, which won, for two consecutive years, first place in the state literary contest.

The Club this year was sponsored by Coach John Bodnarik.

During the year the "C" Club sponsored several of the most successful dances.

This year the "C" Club sponsored, directed,and carried out successfully the scrap drive.

All members take an active part in advertising and distributing tickets to all athletic events.

Most of the money earned by the "C" Club is used to promote the activities at Lane.

The Lane High School Choir has made a definite step toward progress this year under the direction of Mrs. Mae Evelyn Blume.

The Choir has been responsive to all requests for singing. Among these events has been the Hi-Y Christmas Assembly, an entertainment at the University Hospital, a radio program, and our special program "America Sings", which was the highlight of the year. Before the completion of the term, the Choir expects to take part in the Easter Sunrise Service.

The Choir members are proud of their robes which they purchased with the funds accredited to them from the operetta given last year in which they took part.

Under the fine leadership of Mrs. Blume, the Choir looks forward to another year of instruction in cultural music.

Several of the school's most useful organizations come under the Student Council. Under its sponsorship, the Ushers Club and the Honor Committee function to make the school run more smoothly. David Turner headed the Ushers Club, while the Honor Committee was under the leadership of Woodson Harrison and Margaret Lewis.

Under the direction of the Council, three committees were formed: The Ushers Committee—the members of the Council on this committee cooperated with the Ushers in any way they were needed: The Assembly Committee—pupils on this committee saw that there were more and better assemblies during the school year: The Election Committee—pupils on this committee were in charge of the election of the president and vice-president of the Council for the coming term. By constitutional amendment, the officers of the Council had to come from the Junior Class.

Ushers Club

Organized six years ago to cope with disorder in the halls between periods, the Ushers Club has made tremendous gains in the intervening years. Now it not only supervises traffic in the halls, but also controls the lunch room and furnishes trained ushers for the Community Concerts which are presented in Lane's auditorium.

Since these ushers are the members of the student body who most often come in contact with the public, their election is a matter of great care. First a list of volunteers is compiled; then a committee from the Student Council investigates their records and recommends about twenty of them. From this group the whole school elects twelve ushers and their alternates.

WAYNESBORO

Lane's first game of the season was played on the new field on October 1. The inexperienced eleven came out on the short end of a 20-0 score. The Waynesboro team scored twice on intercepted passes and once on a fumble-recovery deep in Lane territory. The home team showed up well; H. Lewis and D. Turner gave a promising show of themselves.

FLUVANNA

On October 8, a more polished team met Fluvanna in its second home game and edged out a 7-6 victory. A determined drive by the opponents late in the first quarter gave them a score. In the third quarter, Lane brought the ball to the ten-yard line by a long end run. D. Turner placed the ball on the one, and H. Lewis went over for the score. A pass from D. Turner to Carter tallied the winning point.

FISHBURNE

The Lane eleven "got on the ball" in its first "away-from-home" game on October 17. The home team scored its second victory against Fishburne Military Academy, 12-6. The first touchdown came in the second quarter when Adams received a thirty yard pass from Turner and ran over for the score; the placement failed. The second score came in the third period when Hughes blocked a punt which was recovered over the goal by Carter; the extra point was no good. Fishburne scored on an end run from the fifteen.

V. S. D. B.

Scoring its third victory of the season, the Lane team met V. S. D. B. and downed them by 6-0. The lone touchdown came when H. Lewis took the ball on the opening kick-off and, behind excellent blocking by Brooks, ran over for the score in the first minute of the opening play.

FAIRFAX

After scoring three straight victories, the Lane team lost to Fairfax on October 29, 13-0. Both of Fairfax's scores were made on passes. Many times the home team penetrated deep into Fairfax's territory but the offensive bogged down and the ball was lost.

FREDERICKSBURG

Suffering its third defeat of the season, Lane met Fredericksburg on the opponents' field on November 6. One "Jacket" scored twice in the third period. Lane's lone touchdown was scored in the first quarter after a long drive. The Lane team played its best game of the season, but the end runs and passes of the opponents' "J" proved too much for it, and the game ended 19-6.

HARRISONBURG

On November 6, Lane travelled to Harrisonburg to meet the Class B Champions. The outweighed Lane squad fought valiantly, but the opponents displayed an excellent running and passing attack, so a large crowd of about one hundred Lane students saw a 24-0 defeat of its team.

MILLER SCHOOL

Before a crowd of about 2000 people, the Lane squad was held to a 0-0 deadlock on Thanksgiving Day. The first half was dominated by the Lane team which threatened to score several times. Miller had possession of most of the second half and failed to score only because of a superb Lane pass defense. This game finished the season for both teams.

Boxing

The Lane High Boxing team, coached by Mr. Bodnarik with the able assistance of Cecil Barnett, came through with a split season. The sport was not emphasized as much this year as in the past, but the team did have two fights.

The team worked hard to keep in condition even though there was a lack of available opponents. On February 19, the ringmen travelled to Massanutten Academy but dropped a close match $5\frac{1}{2}$-$4\frac{1}{2}$; two forfeits cost us the victory. In these bouts Cecil Barnett scored the only "knockout" of the season against his opponent. The second bouts were with McIntire in the opponents' gymnasium on March 3. The Lane boys came through this time, fighting their way to a $5\frac{1}{2}$-$4\frac{1}{2}$ victory.

Boys' Basketball

The Lane Boys' Basketball Team opened its season on January 2 with a squad of about thirty boys reporting for practice. Several Varsity lettermen returned and several promising candidates from last year's Junior Varsity Team were present. The team played practice games with the U. Va. meteorologists, V-12 officers and alumni.

The Varsity squad consisted of about nine boys and the first team was as follows: guards, David Turner, Bobby Turner; center, David Carter; forwards, Jim Fotta and Woodson Harrison.

Fred Lindsay, Bobby Kirby, Bill Harrison and Billy Barksdale also saw action and were valuable assets to the team.

Coach Bodnarik's first season of basketball was highly successful and many boys who were not regulars this year will strengthen the squad next year. The team ended the year with 13 wins and 4 losses. Only one team defeated the Lane Cagers twice in succession; the other two games were dropped by one point.

The Junior Varsity Team won its two games with V. S. D. B. and Orange.

Baseball

Resuming baseball for the first time in many years, Coach Bodnarik opened spring practice with about thirty green boys. Most of the team was inexperienced, but under the eye of their coach, they were ironed out into players.

The team will play practice games with the U. Va. Varsity and Meriwether Lewis before it starts its season.

There will be eight games and perhaps twelve during the first season. Two games will be played with Meriwether Lewis, two with McIntire High School, two with Fluvanna, and two with Woodberry Forest. The team will probably meet Waynesboro and Orange also.

Track

Once again track is taking its place among the sports at Lane. As yet, the boys have had no coaching, but they practice alone and there are several promising candidates for the various events.

Lane will compete in three meets this year; the first will be a Northern District Meet with Arlington as hosts on May 5. There will be a State Meet, which the University of Virginia will hold on May 12 in Charlottesville. The third competition in which Lane will participate, also at Charlottesville, is the State Invitation Meet on May 26.

Girls' Basketball

The Lane Girls' Basketball season which ended the 8th of March had a good season; however, not as successful as that of previous seasons. Coach Alderman had a less experienced group this year with only three letter girls returning to the floor. Woodson and Mann have worked to keep the Orange and Black on top. The '44 squad has shown teamwork; each player has spent hours of practice and preparation on the floor.

The season opened with a game with the Alumnae which ended with the lopsided score of 19-4, the Alumnae on top. Fast passing was shown by forwards Buck, Norford, and Bingler.

The Waynesboro squad ventured to Charlottesville, Jan. 29 and nosed out a victory of 14-11 over the Orange and Black. This was the girls' most exciting and roughest game of the season.

The next week Lane improved her standard with Woolworth's Victory Team by a winning score of 17-7, Mann and Bingler being high scorers.

The non-defeatable Alumnae was ahead again on Feb. 4. The score was 29-18. Alumnae's Marshall and Sclater led in points.

On Feb. 11, the McIntire team met on the Lane gym floor and was winner with a score of 25-23.

Lane visited Waynesboro on Feb. 18, and won the game with a close score of 30-31. As was the home game with Waynesboro, this game was also very exciting.

On Feb. 21, the girls won over Woolworth again and on March 2, the Alumnae were at last defeated by our girls, with a score of 17-11.

In a game with Fairfax, March 8, the Junior Varsity came out ahead with a victory of 19-15. Polly Buck and "Little Seiler" were high scorers.

The Varsity also made a victory of 42-34 over the Fairfax Varsity team the the same day. Mann scored 24 of the 42 points; Bingler and White runners-up.

Both Junior Varsity and Varsity teams bowed to the St. Anne's squads, March 7, with scores of 14-20 and 20-28 respectively.

A Senior's Diary

SEPT. 1. It's fun to be back at school, even though the summer did seem awfully short. I'm starting a diary today, but I probably can't keep it up--Anyway, here goes.

SEPT. 2. I went to the office today to get my schedule changed. I decided to keep it as it was—too much competition.

SEPT. 3. The lower classmen have already lost their awe and are throwing spitballs at the Ushers.

SEPT. 6. We started to work on the CHAIN and and found that we couldn't buy films. Great start!

SEPT. 9. This thing is getting me down; from now on I'll just give you the high lights.

SEPT. 10. Mr. Blume and company elected Betty Ann Hawthorne fall editor of the LANETIME. Rosebud Miller is to be her associate.

SEPT. 11. Miss Ruggieri became Mrs. Redden today and enough rice was thrown at her to feed half of China.

SEPT. 13. The Junior Class elected its officers by ballot this morning and they chose Bobby Turner, president; Shirley McGavock, vice-president; Martha Gillum, secretary; and Pauline Spencer, treasurer.

SEPT. 14. Miss Schuder must run a black market; she finally got us some film, also flash bulbs by priority. Two headaches cured!

SEPT. 15. The Third War Bond Drive opened! Need I say more?

SEPT. 16. We had our first assembly with unusually good conduct. Jack Sims put on the Der Führer stuff. Excellent impersonation!

SEPT. 22. Players Club elected Shirley McGavock and the Choir elected Jean McNett to lead them for the year.

SEPT. 23. The Student Council had its first meeting and elected Margaret Lewis, Shirley Lawrence, and Cecil Barnett to fill the offices. How does it feel to be treasurer, Cecil?

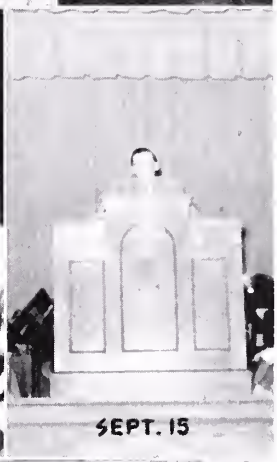
SEPT. 27. After school I went down to the new field and saw the boys practicing and met our new coach, Bodnarik.

SEPT. 30. To-day ended the Third War Bond drive with excellent response by the students.

OCT. 1. The newly elected cheerleaders gave a pep rally before our first game of the season. We lost to Waynesboro (20-0) but were revived by a C Club dance.

OCT. 4. Today, during first period, I stuck my head in the auditorium to hear the band play. I thought Mr. Hoose looked queer in a skirt, but it turned out to be Betty K. Wilson directing.

OCT. 7. Our coach sponsored us in a night rally. It was lots of fun for us but we woke up the town.



Oct. 12. The Players Club initiated its new members today. Bill Johnson has a lovely figure in his mother's dress, and Speed makes a cute Bo-Peep, doesn't he?

Oct. 14. The first Lanetime came out in its wartime makeup. Good work, ed——!

Oct. 15. First of all, the Players Club presented a riot play, "Antic Spring", about a peaceful picnic on a lovely spring day with ants involved. Last of all, the shock of our first report cards.

Oct. 16. The football team went to Fishburne on Saturday in the pouring rain to score a 12-6 victory over the cadets.

Oct. 19. The new Hi-Y members were inducted into the club in a very impressive ceremony. J. Laramore received the boy's honor pin.

Oct. 20. At last, Senior Privileges went into effect! Now we won't have to report to home room at 3:17. (As if we ever did)!

Oct. 21. Sophomore class, finally, after three disputed elections, chose Pritchett, Coiner, Ramey, and Hankins as officers.

Oct. 22. Rationing has its advantages. This is the second day that we have been let out of school at 1 o'clock because of book four registration.

Oct. 23. Our fourth victory! V. S. D. B. was downed 6-0.

Oct. 28. Mrs. Alderman had a Kid party which elected Thelma Woodson Hallowe'en Queen. I wondered why all those girls suddenly started carrying teddy bears to school and wearing skirts that short.

Oct. 29. I talked too fast! We lost to Fairfax. Hallowe'en Night, the Players Club, in the midst of a blackout, gave a very informal dance.

Nov. 2. The band gave a very interesting and original assembly, as they always do.

Nov. 3. Miss Horwitz's history class passed a chewing gum act but it was vetoed by President Sulfridge because it was detrimental to our progress.

Nov. 6. We lost to Fredericksburg on their field, 19-6.

Nov. 9. The Victory Corps organized and gave an assembly yesterday. Today Mrs. Michie registered members.

Nov. 11. The whole town turned out for the Armistice Day parade and I wore my shoes out walking!

Nov. 12. About one hundred fifty people left school and stuffed into buses to go to Harrisonburg to watch our team play. Despite freezing weather, being stranded in Staunton for two hours, losing the game, and not getting back 'till ten, we had a good time.

Nov. 18. We thought that we could get by with murder when Mr. Walker accompanied Mr. Sulfridge to a State Teacher's meeting. We got fooled for Mrs. Walker is another Mr. Walker.

Nov. 25. I missed Thanksgiving dinner to come to school to watch Lane and Miller School draw (0-0). I missed supper to come to the Hi-Y dance. I'm hungry.

Nov. 26-28. If you went to school, you were alone.

Dec. 1. The boys' and girls' basketball teams got under way, and the coach says his material looks promising.

Dec. 3. There was a C Club assembly this morning and the football letters were presented. We also heard about Mr. Dees and his great big ten gallon hat, his boots and spurs, and his two 45's on his hips.

Dec. 7. Today was Pearl Harbor day. We had an assembly to encourage the sale of War Stamps and the school was 100%.

Dec. 8. The Hi-Y girls brought in the dolls all dressed for Christmas. A fine job done.

Dec. 9-10. The Players Club presented three one-act plays for their annual production, Her Majesty the King, The First Dress Suit, and The Toymaker's Doll.

Dec. 10. Today was the last day of those horried C Club initiations. In three days the boys got only about five hours sleep. There were the traditional pigtails, lipstick, dresses, rotten eggs and paddleing. You should have heard Carol Todd's demonstration on milking a cow.

Dec. 14. The Players Club took the Toymaker's Doll up to the hospital and presented it to Dr. Wilson's ward.

Dec. 17. The Hi-Y stockings for the boys at Woodrow Wilson hospital looked tempting.

Dec. 21. The Hi-Y gave its annual Christmas assembly today and honor pins were presented to Shirley Lawrence and Harry Lewis.

Dec. 22. The C Club gave a Christmas dance, our first formal, and then we said Merry Christmas and goodbye to school 'til January 4 with no regrets.

Jan. 4. What'd you get for Christmas? School again—Ray-rah!

Jan. 7. The Boys' Basketball team opened the season by defeating Fluvanna (32-15).

Jan. 10. Did you hear about Mr. Nickels' new theme song, "I'm walking the floor for you, Sue?" Sue Scott Nickels was born December 24, 1943. Congratulations—Sir!

Jan. 14. Our basketball season started off today quite badly with a defeat by Harrisonburg (20-36).

Jan. 21. I'm sorry that I haven't kept up my diary, but we've been having exams.

JAN. 24. Something new!!! Yo-yo's! All I hear is "Sleeping" and "Around the World".

JAN. 28. The Girls' Basketball season opened tonight. The team lost to the Alumnae (29-18). The boys went to Staunton and won (49-27) over V. S. D. B.

JAN. 31. The March of Dimes for the infantile paralysis drive ended today.

FEB. 1. This afternoon five war heroes, accompanied by Leslie Brooks and Edward Buchanan gave a War Bond Drive performance for Lane.

FEB. 8. Mrs. Blume's Choir and Glee Clubs presented an excellent assembly this morning, tracing American music through the years.

FEB. 10. The Student Council reorganized for the spring and discussed plans for more frequent assemblies.

FEB. 14. Nobody loves me, at least I don't think so! I didn't get a valentine.

FEB. 14-15. The Lions Club presented three performances of a minstrel show to raise money for uniforms for the band. The band gave a little skit, with sample uniforms, under the direction of Mr. Lindsay; Laramore, Hoose, Fierro, McConchie, and Rinker performed.

FEB. 15. Boy Scout week ended today so our efficient city officers must retire. Left to right: Jackie Lee, Council member; Robert Mussey, city manager; Max Kennedy, police chief; Bobby Wood, council member; Ken Wallenborn, judge, Cecil Barnett, mayor.

FEB. 17. Miss Horwitz's 4B history class polled the students activities in the homerooms. This is to be included in the class report to the city on juvenile delinquency.

FEB. 19. Our boxing team's loss to Massanutten Academy was caused by the necessity of two forfeits which were, in turn, due simply to the lack of material.

FEB. 21. Funny, nobody knew anything about that explosion which occurred fourth period!

FEB. 24. Classes were run short today so that we could see a movie on the life of Thomas Jefferson.

FEB. 25. A pair of nylon stockings! 100 baby chicks! a pre-war girdle! These and many other articles were auctioned last night at a bond rally to help raise $75,000 for a P-51.

FEB. 26. Miss Shapleigh and Mr. Gresham were married today and are going to Florida where he is stationed. Lucky!

FEB. 26. The Basketball team is getting fancy! They made a week-end trip to northern Virginia; won two out of three games; and wrecked Washington, all in two days.

FEB. 29. Yes, I saw that girl chasing him down the hall, but it's Leap Year! The Boys' Basketball team completed the most successful season within many years this afternoon. Their scores settled up to four defeats, thirteen winnings, and one All-State man.

MARCH 4. Jack Sims, president of the Senior Class, left today for the Army Air Corps. We'll miss him.

MARCH 9. The Student Council acted on the complaint and elected B. Turner, S. Ferland, B. Kirby, M. Gillum, to serve as ushers for the remainder of the school year.

MARCH 10. What a day! This morning, a "half-hour" assembly was given devoted to prayers and singing. Our Red Cross Drive closed with generous support from the school. The clinic room is now completely equipped—thanks to the sponsorship of the Girls' Senior Hi-Y; the direction and purchasing by Marcia Fletcher; the financial support from our principal; and the "cleaner-uppers"! Then a free dance, paid for by the school, was given; Junior-Senior sponsored. Some one tore down all our beautiful decorations!

MARCH 14. The manpower situation is serious! David Turner, our Student Council president, left school to go to the University; several other boys are leaving also.

MARCH 15. The Navy-Army exams given today, drained the last of the seventeen year and over boys in school.

MARCH 17. So we all turned green!—Not envy, St. Patrick's Day.

MARCH 21. The Senior play in rehearsal! Hmm, I hope it's all like this.

MARCH 22. The athletic letters for Boxing and Boys' and Girls' Basketball were awarded today, with an encouraging speech from Mr. Tebell.

MARCH. 23. Some more "C" Club initiations! The boys were given shampoos of rotten eggs, Pepsi-Colas, mud, and flour.

MARCH 24. The clubs and classes elected their choices for Victory Queen today and the classes selected their candidates for next year's Council president.

APRIL 1. Your shoestring's untied! April fool!

APRIL 5. April and May are so full of work and fun that I'm afraid that I won't have time to keep up my diary, but I'm looking forward to Easter Vacation, the Senior Play, Captain Applejack, the Hi-Y banquet, the band concert, and then—we must also work! I mean WORK! Exams loom ahead; the rings and the CHAIN are yet to come. Then those last few days will finally arrive when the Seniors picnic, banquet, receive their grades, graduate, dance and say goodbye.

Goodbye, my friends—goodbye LANE.

Class Contest Winners

The following two pages have been set aside for the winning rooms in the CHAIN contest for subscriptions held in October, 1943.

1. Junior Class, Room 306: Miss Mildred Jones, Teacher.
2. Sophomore Class, Room 202: Miss Ada Lee Berrey, Teacher.
3. Freshman Class, Room 208; Mrs. Katherine Meade, Teacher.
4. Eighth Grade, Room 318: Miss Elizabeth Clay, Teacher.

Senior Contest Winners

Room 207: Mr. H. H. Walker, Teacher.

1. Harry Batty, Edwin Toms, Rea Southworth. Is he heavy, Rea?
2. Billy Hughes. Lost in the woods!
3. Catherine Burton, Judy Raines, and Jean McNett.
4. Alice Wells, and the friendly Selma Marshall.
5. Frances Townsend, Elizabeth Timberlake, Sarah Spencer.
6. Pat Mann, Mr. Walker, Russell Lee. The middle one is Mr. Walker, I believe.
7. Andy Marinos, Billy Hobart, David Walker's hand.
8. Woodson Harrison, David Turner, Bill Harrison. Down one more step, David, and you'll be even.
9. Jerry White, Ethel Scruggs.
10. Billy Barksdale, "Slick".
11. Virginia Kirby, Alice Gibson, William Berry, Paul Ritchie.
12. Sam Chase, Andy Marinos, David Walker, Jack Laramore—four talls.
13. Mr. Walker's Room—Pythagoras on the right, Sir Isaac Newton on the left.
14. Shirley Lawrence, Nell Williams, Alice Wells. We're scared to say anything about them.

1. Enjoying yourselves, boys? By the way, those are lovely shirts.
2. This is what the boys had to pep them up! Our cheerleaders.
3. What would we do without you, Miss Bolen?
4. Our backfield.
5. Camera, action!
6. "The Coach" giving his boys a talk during the "half".
7. What a lovely bride! Mrs. Koos.
8. Back from the bank—
9. Congratulations to you both, Miss Shapleigh, Mr. Gresham.
10. Remember "The First Dress Suit"? Well, the dress suit hadn't arrived!
11. In case you don't recognize the wedding party—bridesmaids: Nickels, Walker, Reitz, Speidel; flowergirl: Hoose; ringbearer: Souder; bride: Blume; groom: Johnson.
12. Just a play—"The First Dress Suit".
13. Need I explain? "Her Majesty the King".
14. A pep rally—

1. Sissy and Annie Mary, "her little girl," who pushes the box around.
2. Nancy, Bobby, Nancy.
3. The Science Club discovering a new element: all in a day's work.
4. Aw————————, an usher leaning over the rail!
5. The Junior Choir.
6. Typing class.
7. Trig class; can't you see those looks of chagrin?
8. Men in aprons!
9. Women in aprons!
10. Our woman woodworker.
11. Study Hall! What's so funny, Kirby?
12. Don't blow anything up!

1. Our flag.
2. Remember the choral assembly? Poor shy Jack! I feel so sorry for him—ha-ha.
3. Trackman.
4. More trackmen.
5. You know Hank.
6. Putting on those smelly socks! You know, the ones that got up and walked off.
7. "C" Club initiations.
8. Isn't that a professional position?
9. You're out!
10. After the game!
11. Look at the "boidie" (I mean the camera, not Johnston).
12. Signing annuals. Don't fall out the window!
13. The band practicing.
